(1783-1824) AUGUSTIN DE ITURBIDE

A revolutionary leader and emperor of Mexico. Unsuccessful in his efforts for an independent monarchy under the rule of a Spanish Bourbon, he was himself emperor from 1822-1823, and crowned with the title of AUGUSTIN I (July 21, 1822). Exiled he went to Europe.

Returning to Mexico 1824, in the false belief that a hearty welcome awaited him, 1702 BIDE was awarded, condemned as a traitor, and shot at Padilla.
